

Fort Langley National Historic Site

Visual Guide

Parks
Canada

Parcs
Canada

Welcome to Fort Langley

Fort Langley is a National Historic Site.

It is located in the Langley Township

See it on a map here.

Accessibility

Fort Langley has facilities and amenities to support visitors with reduced mobility.

There is accessible parking, washrooms and access to buildings and exhibits.

For more facility and service information click here.

Visitor Centre

You will arrive at the Visitor Centre.

First, go to the front desk,

Then, pay for your admission.

You might have to wait in a line, but it won't take long!

Plan your Visit

Did you know?

At the Visitor Centre there is:

- Site Guides in the language of your choice

Site Guide

This is the Site Guide available at the Visitor Centre.

You can use it to:

- see where the buildings are
- plan your route
- find the washrooms

Entering the Fort

After the Visitor Centre it is time to enter the Fort!

First, follow the pathway.

Then, enter through the main gate.

Explore the Fort

Once you are through the gates it is time to explore!

You can use your Site Guide for directions.

Remember to stay with the people you came with!

Fort Langley Staff and Volunteers

There are staff and volunteers that are dressed in fur trading costumes.

You can talk to them if you need assistance or want to learn more about the fort.

Cooperage

The cooperage is where coopers built barrels.

Meet the cooper.

Watch a demonstration.

Try building a bucket!

Storehouse

The storehouse is the oldest building at Fort Langley!
There are examples of the items used in trades.

Note! *There can be a strong smell in this building.
You can step out if you need a break.*

Blacksmith

Watch the blacksmith make tools.

Ask questions about what they are making!

Note! This area can be noisy with loud sounds and sparks.*

Children's Play Area

Time to play at the children's area!

This building is a great area for smaller kids to climb, play and learn more about Fort Langley.

Servants quarters

This is the servants' quarters building.

Go inside and see displays showing what it was like to live at Fort Langley.

Big house

Welcome to the Big house!

First, go inside to see how the managers lived.

Then, visit the gallery upstairs.

Remember, do not go past the roped off areas!

Farm and Garden

Check out the farm and garden.

In the summer you will see animals here such as chickens and goats!

Taking a Break

Remember to take a break whenever you need!

There are picnic tables and chairs throughout the grounds.

Bring your own food and enjoy a picnic!

Find a Quiet Space

There are different quiet areas around the fort.

- Visit the garden.
- Go to the theatre building
(if there is no film showing.)

Activities

Sometimes there are special events at the fort.

It can be fun to watch!

You can take a break in a quiet place if it is too loud or crowded.

Gold Panning

Try panning for gold!

You can ask a staff member for help.

Sometimes this activity is closed in the winter.

Xplorer Program

Xplorer program is a fun way to experience the Fort!
They are available at the Visitor Centre.

If you complete the pamphlet of activities you can get a prize at the end of your visit!

Leaving the Fort

Leave the same way you entered.

Go through the gate and down the path.

Exit through the Visitor Centre.

Thank you for visiting
Fort Langley National Historic Site!

We hope to see you again soon.

Parks
Canada

Parcs
Canada

