

Bruce Peninsula
National Park
parks.canada.gc.ca

Help keep your park lakes invasive free

© NOAA

© Michigan Sea Grant

© Joseph R. Tomelleri

Spiny Waterflea

Quagga and Zebra Mussels

Round Goby

	High Risk	Moderate Risk	Low Risk
Was your canoe or kayak in another lake?	Within the past 24 hours	This week	Washed and dried for at least one week
Is there water, plants, animals, or mud on your canoe or kayak?	Yes, visible	Possibly	No, everything is clean and dry for at least one week
Do you have live bait?	Yes	No	No
Required action...	STOP! You are likely transporting an invasive species REMOVE plants, animals, and mud CLEAN with pressure washer DO NOT use live bait	INSPECT your boat and gear If not entirely clean or dry, use a pressure washer	Welcome and enjoy your park experience

Pressure wash station located at Cyprus Lake Campground Office.

Report violators: Call 519-596-2702 or Parks Canada staff.

For more information

e-mail: bruce-fathomfive@pc.gc.ca, call: 519-596-2233, or search: www.invasivespecies.gc.ca

Parks Canada    Parcs Canada

Canada