

The hiking trails at Rouge National Urban Park take visitors through a variety of landscapes, including forests, wetlands, meadows and even farmland! Take a stroll along one of our new trails to see active farm fields of crops like soy, corn and wheat, from planting to harvest.